The cables design is determined following your request and, as for missing items, according to our experience of manufacturer. Performance of the offered cables depends on how they will be used, on the characteristics of the machinery in which they will be installed and on the conditions of operations.

For these reasons, the warranty coverage is only for physical defects of its construction. Tests performed on samples expressly built will give us the opportunity to extend the warranty to the operation of the offered cables according what previously agreed.

La presente conferma d'ordine si riterrà da Voi accettata trascorsi 5 gg lavorativi dall'invio della stessa a mezzo FAX./This order acknowledgement will be considered accepted by Your Company five working days after FAX date.
